Queramus cum Pastoribus*Jean Mouton
(c. 1459-1522)

We seek with the shepherds, the word incarnate. We sing with mankind to the king of the ages. Noël, Noël. Who is it you see in the stable? Jesus born of the virgin. What do you hear in the manger? Angels singing and shepherd saying, Noël, Noël. Where do you eat? Where do you sleep? Do you laugh or weep? We ask you, Christ our King: Noël, Noël. My food is virgin's milk, my bed a hard manger, my songs are tears, Noël, Noël.

Quem Pastores*arr. John Rutter
(b. 1945)

*1. Shepherds left their flocks at God's command, when they heard the angels say, "Born is the King of Glory."
2. Wise men came bearing gold, frankincense, and myrrh; precious gifts they laid before the newborn King of Glory.
3. Christ the King, God is born of the virgin Mary let us sing him true songs of praise, honor and glory.*

Conditor Alme Siderum Psalm 138 chant, 6th C.

Vesper hymn for use in Advent, up to 16 December.

*1. Creator of the stars of night, your people's everlasting light, Jesus redeemer of us all, hear your servants when we call.
2. Now grieving that the ancient curse, should doom to death a universe, you heal all those who need your grace, and come to save our fallen race.
3. When this old world drew on towards night, you came not in your princely might, but born of Mary, mother mild, became the victim undefiled.
4. At your great name majestic now, all knees must bend all heads must bow, all things in heaven and earth adore, and own you, King, for evermore.
5. Great judge of all on that last day, be present then with us we pray, your scattered people, Lord, unite, in triumph over Satan's might.
6. To God the Father, God the Son, and God the Spirit, three in one, praise honor might and glory be, from age to age eternally. Amen.*
